SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT
 TO THE HONORABLE BOARD OF EDUCATION
 AND CITIZENS OF JEFFERSON

Teachers:

Two new teachers were added to our teaching staff this year, namely, Miss Florence Baker of Concord, and Mrs. Effie Hunt of Starrking. Miss Baker, an honor student from New Hampshire University, is the assistant in the High School, and Mrs. Hunt took charge of the Meadows Grammar School. Mrs. Muzzey transferred to Starrking.

Repairs:

The foundation of the building at the Meadows was repaired. A new front door was installed at the Hill and the hall newly painted. All of the schools were given a thorough cleaning.

Health:

The annual physical examination was given early in the year by the school physician. Hot lunches have been furnished at the Hill during the winter.

Finances:

The cost of the Jefferson schools has decreased nearly three thousand dollars in the last five years. The cost cannot be cut further without seriously impairing the efficiency of the schools. In fact any cut in the present budget would mean that the standard of the schools will be lowered.

Conclusion:

Since the founding of the first common school in America, namely the Boston Latin School in 1635, the American public has given wholehearted support to the education of the children. In good times and in poor, the substantial citizens of each and every town have demanded that the welfare of the young be their major consideration.

It is a tribute to the people of America that they have been willing to make heavy sacrifices to maintain the hope of democracy,—the common school.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM G. FULLER.
